

CLOVER RIDGE PLACE OCTOBER 2011

When the Frost is on the Punkin

*They's something kind o'harty-like about the atmusfere
When the heat of summer's over and the coolin' fall is here.
Of course we miss the flowers, and the blossoms on the trees,
And the mumble of the hummin' birds and buzzin' of the bees;
But the air's so appetizin', and the landscape through the haze
Of a crisp and sunny morning of the airy autumn days
Is a pictur' that no painter has the colorin' to mock,
When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock.*

*The husky, rusty russel of the tossels of the corn,
And the raspin' of the tangled leaves, as golden as the morn;
The stubble in the furries-kind o' lonesome like, but still
A preachin' sermons to us of the barns they growed to fill;
The straw stack in the medder, and the reaper in the shed;
The hosses in they'r stalls below, the clover overhead
Oh, it sets my hart a-clickin' like the tickin' of a clock,
When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock!*
